Nineteen Hundred and Eighty Two

Lost somewhere in the memories of one's mind are the thoughts, the joys, the laugher, and the pain that has made our school year, 1981-82, complete.

This yearbook, a pictorial account of the year's events, the faculty, students, and for some of us LIFE, has been brought back to life in the contents of the following pages. As we . . .

Found it . . .

Knew it . . .

Left it . . .

All Sports Queen 1981
Kim Bridges

Kimberly LaDawn Bridges, All Sports Queen 1981, was crowned September 24th during homecoming halftime activities. Kim has been very active at Classen serving in various capacities. To name a few: Student Council Parlimentarian and Secretary, Junior Class President, Orbit editor and also had the privilege of representing Classen at the 1981 Girl's State. She plans to further her education after graduation majoring in some form of Oral Communications. When asked her feelings toward Classen, she responded with a smile, "My years shared here are ones to be cherished for a lifetime! The people at Classen are special, thus making the school as a whole something to be proud of.

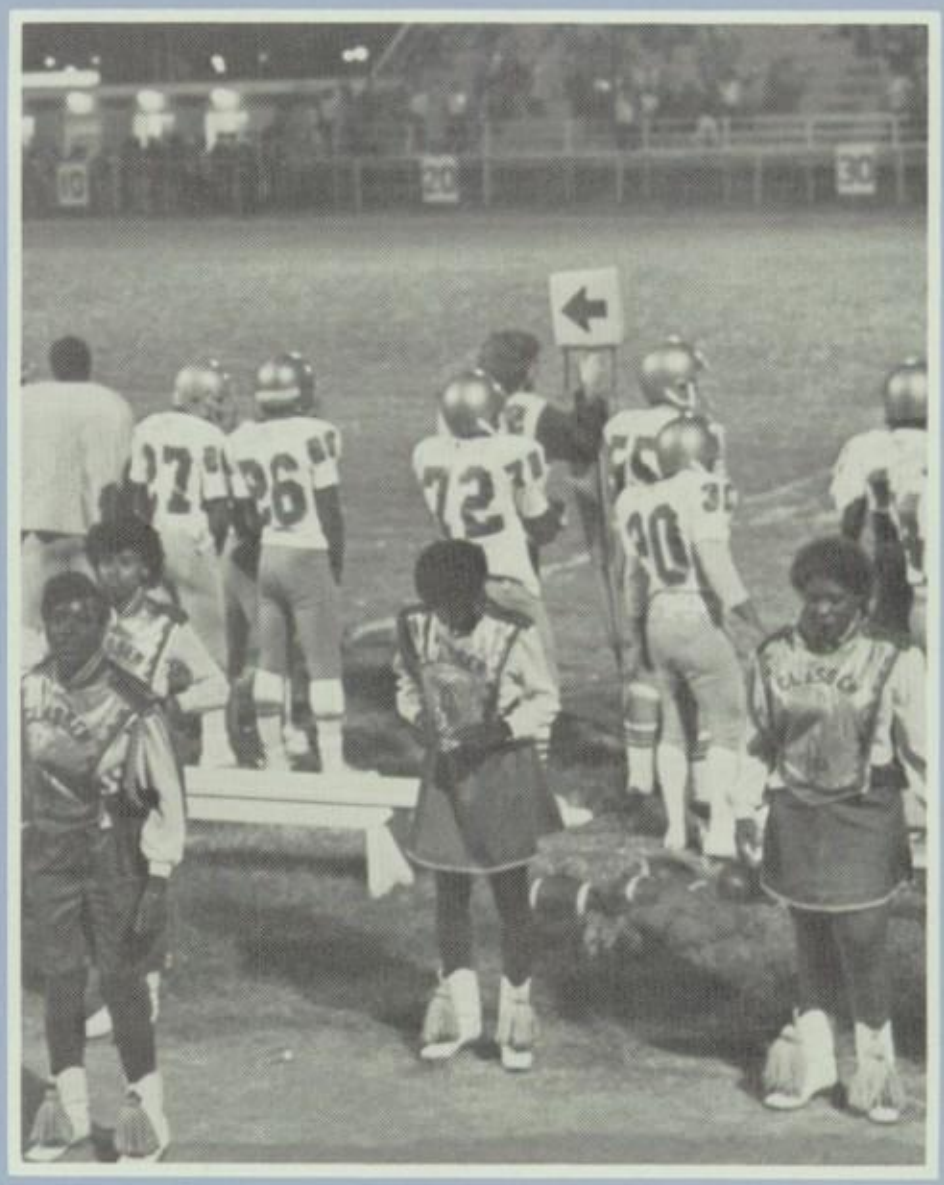
Homecoming Events



Do It Now
Homecoming 1981

"Do It Now" was the theme for this year's homecoming.

The day was filled with various activities beginning with hall decorations in the morning, followed by an afternoon pep assembly and parade.

The climax of the evening, the crowning of the 1981 All Sports Queen and the Comet's glorious win over Crooked Oak 20-0, made it a homecoming to be remembered.

Nineteen Hundred and Eighty Two

SO LONG WE HAVE TRIED, TO REACH OUR GOAL BEFORE IT DIED. NOW WE ARE SENIORS, WE WILL SOON BE GONE. BUT FOREVER MAY WE AS COMETS LIVE ON.

Another year has come and gone, a facet of our lives has come to an end. For so long we were sheltered in the security of these walls, as we paced, roamed and actually owned the CHS halls.

Our teachers so dear, seemed to have come so close to teaching us something from the books that we evaded most. Dr. Cole, a friend to all of us spent her time protecting us from all that we feared. Our hopes, our dreams, she seemed to inspire as she stood watching us go from hour to hour. As our year comes to an end our tears begin to fall, for no longer can we spend our days just roaming the halls.

Dear Classen, WE LOVE YOU, to you we will always be true, for being a Comet was once EVERYTHING to me and to you!

Chay Cha

Senior Class Wills

I, Rebecca Lynn Wilhite, do hereby bequeath to all the underclassmen to have the capacity mentally and physically and to have the capability to be mature enough to understand, comprehend and to overlook all the not matured, ripe, developed, or perfected boys and girls that attend Classen High School for they are imcompetent at this point or stage of their life. I also hope that all the students that will graduate in the 82 year will pursue and obtain everything they desire and to understand the feelings and or viewpoint of others they meet and know in their existance on earth and then look back to see how their moral considerations were and how they are when they are adults to others. My special thanks to Dr. Cole, Mr. Keeler, Mr. Khalid, and Coach Dee.

I, Deitric Pierson, do hereby bequeath to my little sisters Marquetta and Sharon, the ability to overlook the jealous dispositions and feelings of classmates as well as some of the faculty and other students.

I, Sherry Hinton, do hereby bequeath to Cathy Alexander to keep your head together, to go to class, and make the best out of life that you can because we only go around once. If you follow in the footsteps of your sisters and friends, then you can succeed. Remember to always carry that brass ring and be proud of what you have accomplished.

I, Kevin Reeves, do hereby bequeath to Coach Griffin my thanks to him for having the patience to put up with me for four years. Thanks.

I, Lisa Washington, do hereby bequeath to D.J. Baker, Tina and Junita Neal, the ability to make the best of times out of your stay at Classen and to the rest of my friends . . . the inspiration to improve Classen as the years go by. Good bye and good luck to you all.

I, Pete Delaney, do hereby bequeath to Tony Rios and Charlie Ivins my ability to swim faster than anyone in the city.

I, Donna Allen, do hereby bequeath to David Partin, Mary Travis, and Floyd Martin the ability to put up with four years of schoolwork. Also a special thanks to Mr. Don Fleet.

I, John Minden, do hereby bequeath to the boys swim team all my swimming abilities.

I, Ms. Avis Lofton, do hereby bequeath to the girl's basketball team to continue playing well and have a positive attitude at all times. Look over the negative things. Each member to work hard and someday you will be able to have the great basketball abilities I have.

I, Christy Cutliff, do hereby bequeath to my underclassmate females, the ability to go to class and learn all they can while there is a chance instead of ditching and flirting with young guys.

I, Aletha Prince, do hereby bequeath to the underclassmen, the ability to go to class and be liked by all you teachers.

I, Lillian (Penny) Wilson, do hereby bequeath to Luther and Otis Viney the ability to enjoy your remaining years at Classen.

I, Lorraine Lovelace do hereby bequeath to Latonya Harris the ability to finish school and go on to college and to enjoy your life.

I, Angie Pierce, do hereby bequeath to my sister, Rhonda Pierce, the ability to change your ways and to make it through high school. Also, the ability to learn not to eat locus shells even if you are crazy about them. To Maryanne Barton, Janetta Edwards, and Brenda Calwell, the ability to graduate. To Gina Bruno, the ability to count all of her polos and fight her own battles.

Nineteen Hundred and Eighty Two

Many have traveled the halls of Classen High School in years past and present. All have hopes and dreams of what may be. The future exists as a vast horizon to be explored and conquered. A few have already pierced that ominous plane. You will meet those individuals on the following pages. Congratulations are due these people. They have been chosen by their peers and/or elders to be representative of what is desired.

Many seniors dream of winning the highest honor bestowed upon a senior man and woman, the Anton H. Classen Medal of Honor Award. This year, 1982, three of those dreams became reality. Due to the closness in activity and faculty points, the male recipient of the award will be shared by two deserving young men, Scott Payzant and Rod Rogers. Rod, Scott, and Sherry were chosen on the basis of scholarship, strength of character, qualities of leadership and citizenship.

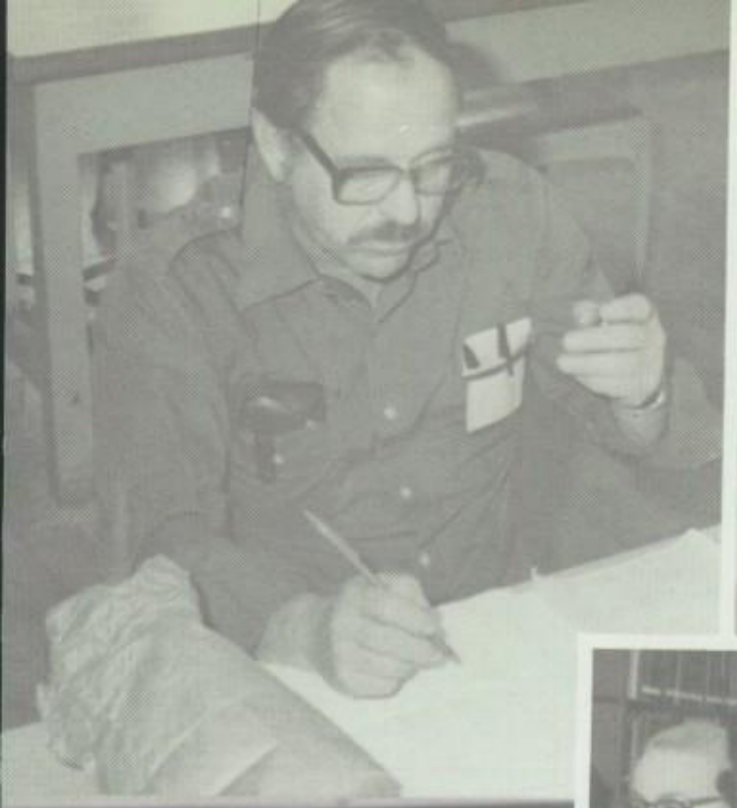
FACULTY



#1 Principal
Fact Or Fiction?
Fact!
DR. SALLY R. COLE

TO KNOW HER — IS TO LOVE HER!

Dr. Cole has been an inspiration to everyone that she has touched. Running Classen with an ultimate grace of sophistication, keeping things together, and taking care of business. Leading, guiding, and loving her "babies" is what she does best.

Along with her duties as principal, she finds the time somehow to be so many other things at Classen. It is no surprise to find her cleaning the halls when it is needed or filling her toilet with water when the plumbing has given out.

Being a friend to all, she is always there, always here to lend an ear. A true Comet she will always be and better people we have become because of all the good she has done!

Classen and Cole still together and going strong for the fourth year.

All of you have read fiction books and fairy tales, but one thing at Classen High School that is very real indeed is our principal, Dr. Sally Cole.

She advocates an open door policy which enables direct contact between the students and principal. Dr. Cole gives each student that chance he needs to further his education.

Our principal is a beautiful, caring and loving human being. She respects the feelings, attitudes, personalities and ways of the people surrounding her.

Newspaper . . . . . Looking Good

Classen Life Editor, Sondra Robbins

Classen Life underwent a complete face-lift under the direction of the new journalism advisor, Mrs. Brule'. Printing of the newspaper was transferred to Foster Estes Vocational Technical School. Paper stock was improved from news rag to high quality white paper. The Graphics Department at the Oklahoma City Board of Education set all headlines. Classen patron, Rex Travis volunteered his typesetting machine. The result of all these efforts was a highly improved and respected publication. Classen Life was distributed free to all students and faculty members. A treasured memento is displayed in the journalism room, a note from Dr. Cole concerning the first publication of Classen Life this school year, "Congratulations to you and your staff for the excellent newspaper. It shows a great deal of effort."

Jean Munde

ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR JEAN MUNDE

Mrs. Jean Munde is the new activities director at Classen High School. She joined the Classen staff in 1980 as the drama teacher. Prior to that time she was activities director at John Marshall for 13 years.

"Activities are the fulfillment of high school life," believes Mrs. Munde, "They are an addition to the academic, not a replacement for. I think that students who are actively involved are happier."
